What's happening around the village?

- Daffodils & wildflowers will be planted in the orchard on Heath Rd ready to bloom next year. Cllr Rowland will also be building a compost bin for the area. Every little helps!
- Look out for more dog fouling signs around the rec after dark! A new CBC initiative to try and tackle the ongoing problem.
- This time of year we start to tackle maintenance issues after the summer season, if you see anything amiss please report it to us.
- Strawberry Fayre 2018 is on 16th June! Rowhedge Regatta is on the 30th June!
- Tickets are selling fast for the Rowhedge Firework Display organised by the PTA.
- If you find any lost property or you have lost anything, pop in and see us here at the office—it may have been handed in.
- The sailing season is over for another year & Pearsons Quay will be having some work done to fix the uneven surface.

Kindly organised for a resident; The Lazy Bones Flea Market will be reopening on the 19th of November from 10am till 1pm at the Village Hall.

To all those who are wanting to hire an indoor pitch limited pitches only, early bookings advised to guarantee your pitch.

Fee is £10 per pitch £11 with table.

Bringing your own would be better due to amount we can supply.

Christmas Light Switch On in Colchester Town centre. Father Christmas will be arriving at 4pm for a 4.30pm light switch on with the Mayor. Inside Fenwick Colchester, visitors can enjoy a stunning Christmas Carousel sculpture with each horse having been decorated by a local school.

Check out "Rowhedge Village" group on facebook for pictures of local events, buildings and people past & present. All posted by our local amateur photographer and group creator Ivan Beales who also took this picture of the sundial.

If you have a picture of the local area you would like to share with us all, send it in to the office where it could feature here & the website.
